To grow is to change, and to have changed often is to have grown much.
JOHN HENRY NEWMAN

We experience growth in a myriad of ways. Our minds are challenged and our understanding of the world around us grows. Our emotions are also challenged; sometimes we win and sometimes we lose, but by losing we gain a great appreciation of what it is to be a true winner.

Simple challenges of life comprise most of the growing process. We must respond to these personal challenges whether they occur during the emotion-filled moments of a basketball game or the quiet solitude of a dormitory.

Growth and change involve struggle. We must face this challenge alone or with the support of our friends.

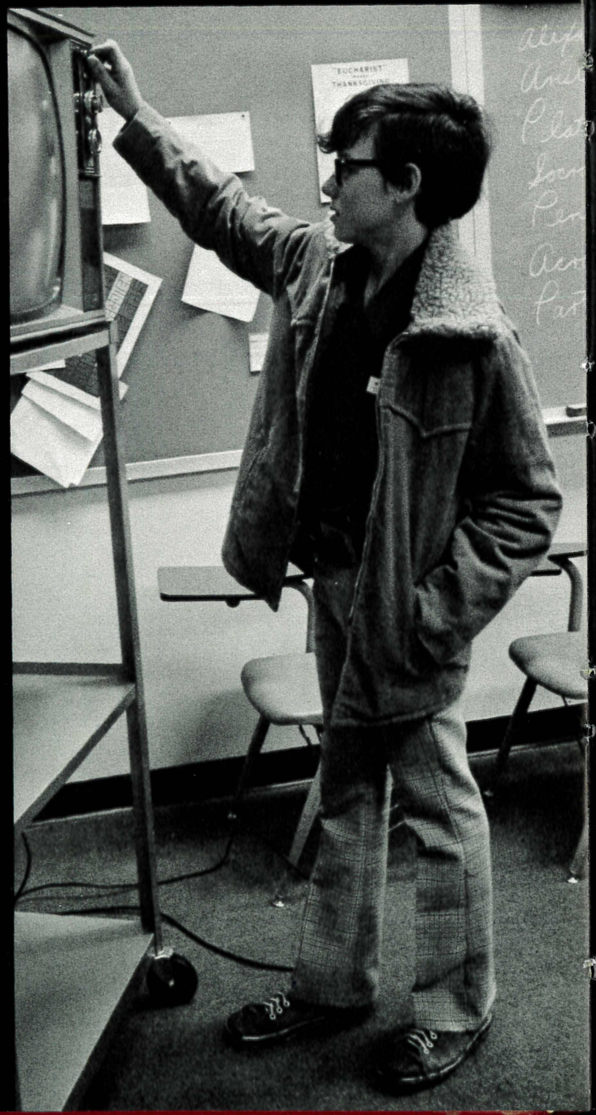
When we can accept a challenge, struggle with it for all we've got, and then shoulder whatever fate offers in return, we are close to full growth, maturity.



ACADEMICS

History, Geography Offer Enrichment

Social studies are offered in some form on every grade level at St. Stanislaus. American history is the principal field of endeavor; however, ancient history, geography and contemporary foreign cultures are also studied. American government, Communism and Mississippi history and government are mandatory for all high school students. The addition of new audio visual material this year has proven invaluable to teachers. The aim of the social studies program at St. Stanislaus is to impart to each student an understanding and appreciation of man and his past, and to prepare the student for his role as a future citizen.

Languages Help Enliven Studies

St. Stanislaus offers a wide variety of foreign languages which include French, Latin, and Spanish. Through the study of these languages the student should increase his reading comprehension and achieve a great facility in speaking. The language lab is an important aspect of education that aids in the practical application of these studies. In addition St. Stanislaus provides a variety of film strips and tapes which stimulate interest in foreign studies.

To aid in the promotion of these languages a chapter of the Spanish Honor Society was established, and a chapter of the French Honor Society was begun this past year. These organizations sponsor trips abroad during the summer months.

Science Proves Interesting

Science has always intrigued man. It still does at Stanislaus where many varied courses such as earth science, chemistry, physics, biology, marine biology, ecology, physical science, and physical oceanography are presented to the students. These courses can offer much for a student and can be extremely helpful in our future lives since much of today and tomorrow is linked with the sciences.

Actual experimentation with scientific facts is stressed at Stanislaus. The dissection of lower animals, such as frogs, in biology, the measuring of a river's current in physical oceanography, and the measuring of the rate of acceleration in physics are just a few experiments that are performed at Stanislaus.

Any student who pursues the field of science at S.S.C. can expect continuous challenges throughout the year.

Reading and English Stressed

Reading and English are stressed at Stanislaus through a program in literature and composition.

Freshmen are introduced to short stories and the Elizabethan Period. Sophomores study Medieval tales and plays. Juniors read works from John Steinbeck and William Faulkner portraying the history of American literature. Seniors learn about English literature from the Anglo-Saxon age to modern writers.

Besides reading for class, students at all levels are encouraged to read for enjoyment and are instructed to improve their vocabularies and increase their comprehension. Grammar is studied to help prepare students for writing in the upper levels. Seniors study the writing of paragraphs in preparation for college level compositions. Recognizing reading and writing as very important in college and career life, teachers at Stanislaus help students become stronger in both these subjects.

Religion Builds Character

St. Stanislaus helps to mold a person's character and individual values. Religion is a main contributor to this idea. Students have the opportunity of going to school Masses on weekdays and also having their own "class Mass."

Freshman and sophomore students are taught the life and teachings of Jesus Christ and also the basic laws of the Church. Junior and Senior students are more involved with morality, marriage and development into mature Christian adults.

Stanislaus also offers a course to non-Catholic students to learn more of their own religious beliefs.

Middle Right: Eighth grade students listen enthusiastically.

Math Skills Developed

Math skills are developed as early as possible at Stanislaus in order to give students a strong college preparatory background. After basic Algebra, a student studies plane geometry in his sophomore year. Algebra II takes a student further into the field of algebra during his junior year. Seniors may choose either senior math or analysis.

Brother Paul is sponsoring a new math club this year. The club will supplement regular class and invite the study of new and more advanced concepts in mathematics.

Art and Business Prepare Careers

Typing and mechanical drawing, taught by Mrs. Dorothy Kersanac and Mr. Pitalo, respectively, are courses taught at St. Stanislaus which help students procure a self-reliant career. This year the business classes visited the Merril, Lynch, Pierce, Fenner, and Smith Stock Brokerage Firm, the Federal Reserve Branch Bank, and the computer section of Brother Martin High School, all located in New Orleans. These field trips were planned to give each business student a new view of the different fields open to him in business.

Art, an elective taught by Brother Hilbert, is one of the more creative courses offered at St. Stanislaus. In art, the students learn to make ceramics, sculpture figures, throw pottery, paint, and perform other projects such as string art.

New Band Hall Greets Students

One week before the opening of school fifty-five band members reported to practice in their new band hall, the Brother Romuald Memorial Band Hall. The many hours of practice before school even started prepared them for the ten football games at which they presented halftime shows. It also gave them a taste of the demands that their band director, Mr. Davis Williams, would ask of them throughout the year. The band members responded to the challenge.

Marching Band Has Busy Season

Besides marching at ten football games, the marching band competed in the Gulf Coast Marching Contest in October. They were invited to and marched in the Tulane University Homecoming Parade on November 2nd in New Orleans, La. Two students, Carl Schott and Paul Stoulig, participated in the State Band Clinic during December. Fifteen students won awards at the Gulf Coast Band Clinic, while six students captured honors at the Lumberton Clinic on February 1st. The following day the marching band paraded in the annual Mardi Gras festivities of Waveland, the Nereids Parade.

2 Superiors Won at State Festival

At the State Band Festival in April the St. Stanislaus band won a superior rating for drum major and inspection. Excellent ratings were awarded for concert, marching, and sight reading.

Senior Paul Stoulig was awarded the John Philip Sousa Award at the Spring Awards Concert on May 8th. The Most Outstanding Section award went to the saxophone section of Eric Schott, Nick Haas, and Rudy Letellier. Ninth grader John Davies received the LaNasa—Greco Award. Many Activities Guided by Student Council

Active in many areas of student life this past year was the Student Council. For instance, in October zodiac posters were sold for Hurricane Fifi victims in Honduras; homecoming pep rally, parade, and dance were sponsored by the Student Council, as well as the '75 Prom. Eleven new benches were purchased and painted by volunteers. A Student Council store was operated by students during noon recess. Intramurals throughout the year were organized and refereed by Student Council volunteers. A Senior-Faculty basketball game was held for the benefit of the Lenten Mission Drive, also run by the Student Council.

Officers for the '75 Student Council included: Jim Amenta, President; Brent Logan, 1st Vice-President; David Treutel, 2nd Vice-President; Frank Schmidt, Secretary; and Lee Eymard, Treasurer.

"Color My World" Is Prom Theme

''Color My World'' served as the theme for the 1975 Junior-Senior Prom. The Prom was held on Saturday, April 19th in the Westside Community Center on the beach in Gulfport.

Music was provided by the Adams Apple band from New Orleans, La., as the juniors, seniors and their dates danced from 8 to midnight. Set decorations which included table settings, stage back drop, and a suspended, rotating globe were prepared by the student council members. Sandwiches and refreshments were served throughout the evening by volunteers.

Sidelines Club Helps Athletic Program

Raising money for the athletic program is the main purpose of the St. Stanislaus Sideline Club. It is a group of interested alumni and fathers of students who spend many free hours laboring for the cause.

Officers for 1974-75 include: President, Gilbert Gayaut; 1st Vice-President, Henry Logan; 2nd Vice-President, Harry Bowes; and Secretary-Treasurer, Bro. Philip.

Projects completed during the year were the covering of the stadium seats with protective red fiberglas, building a new concession booth and a new storage room on the locker room. And as usual, the Sidelines Club sponsored the Turkey Shoot, the Seafood Dinner, and the annual Fair in May.

Lisa Reigns Over Homecoming Court

1974's Homecoming Court included five young ladies from the Bay-Waveland-Pass Christian area. They were chosen by the members of the football and basketball teams.

O.L.A. senior, Lisa Worrel, was chosen as queen. Lisa is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Worrel of Waveland. Her court consisted of Bay High senior Yolanda Piernas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roman Piernas of Bay St. Louis; O.L.A. junior, Lori Sallanger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sallinger of Bay St. Louis; and O.L.A. sophomores, Jan Gex, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hartwell Gex of Pass Christian and Donna Peterman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Peterman of Waveland.

During pre-game ceremonies at the Stanislaus-St. Martin football game the Homecoming Court was presented to the student body and other fans.

Pep Rally, Parade, Dance Mark '75 Homecoming

Thursday night, October 17th, marked the beginning of Homecoming '74 activities. Class competition and the pep band entertained a large pep rally crowd between the gym and main school building. Three-legged races, balloon tosses, tug-of-wars, a beauty pageant, skits, and a cheering contest helped to generate spirit.

A 14-13 Rock-a-chaw victory over St. Martin highlighted Friday night's football game. The Homecoming Court was presented in pre-game ceremonies.

''Nantucket'' from New Orleans provided the sounds at Saturday night's Homecoming Dance. Student Council members decorated the Mall for the dance.

Reflections Records Year

This year's Reflections staff was assembled from a host of new students. These new members were optimistic about their chances of producing another "superior" yearbook. Each person had his own ideas about what was right, but with the help of Bro. Roy, their faculty moderator, they combined these ideas into this '75 Reflections.

Cheerleaders Instill Spirit

The 1974-75 cheerleading squad had an early start in preparing for this year's football season. They had been preparing since March of last year. Led by their new captains, Susan Benvenutti and Dan Byrnes, they supported our team at all the games. Combined with the pep band and pep squad, the cheerleaders proved to be an invaluable aid. They also won the Homecoming poster contest and decorated their van in the Homecoming Parade.

Bro. Acquin Gauthier and Mrs. Phillis Giles prepared the team while providing transportation to all the away games.

Weightlifting Team Places at Meets

Saint Stanislaus' Weightlifting Club, now in its sixth year of operation, is one of the most modern and best equipped facilities found in any high school. In the past year alone, 200 pounds of weights and five different exercise units have been added to the club.

Under the able guidance of Brother Bennet, the club coach and moderator, the team won the Mississippi State Novice Meet in October 1974, placed second in the Junior Powerlift Meet sponsored by the New Orleans Police Department in November 1974, and took second place in the Mississippi State Meet in March 1975. This last meet was sponsored by the St. Stanislaus Weightlifting Club for the sixth time. Members of this team include students Clay Chetta and Matt Romito, former students Jay Heitzman, graduates John Ludlow and Mike Blaize, and Brother Roy Wittendorfer.

LWAS, National Honor Society Benefit School

Attempting to keep the student body informed on the latest happenings around school was the main function of the Last Week at Stanislaus staff. Danny Byrnes, Paul Stoulig, Walter Bringaze, Bobby Strohmeyer and Bill Staehle alternated posting pictures and writing articles for the bulletin board.

Two members of the Bro. Peter Basso Chapter of the National Honor Society served as state officers during the past school year. They were Bob Warner, president, and James Schott, secretary.

Officers for the local chapter were Bayne Dickinson, president; David Treutel, vice-president; Tom Piland, secretary; and James Schott, treasurer.

Among its projects for the year were the hosting of the annual Honors and Leadership Banquet and the chapter's participation in Spring Hill's "College Night."

French, Spanish Honor Societies Travel

St. Martinville, Louisiana, and the Evangeline country was the scene of a jaunt during the school year by the French Honor Society at St. Stanislaus. The group went in connection with a tour sponsored by the Council for the Development of French in Louisiana. The one day trip was one of the many projects sponsored by the French and Spanish Honor Societies to engender interest in the two languages.

A Fiesta with music, games and authentic Spanish food was staged at S.S.C. to create a Latin atmosphere on campus.

A joint induction was held for both groups in the spring. Invitation into the Societies is based on achievement in the languages.

Boarding Provides New Experiences

Boarding at St. Stanislaus provides a student with many new experiences. Living with two or three roommates and a whole floor of boys his own age, the boarding student has the opportunity to make many new friends.

Dormitory living encompasses many facets of everyday life, from holiday parties and trips to the beach, to serving at meals and just being with others.

Dormitory Life . . .

While the quiet studying of schoolwork was supervised, clowning in Thursday morning's pile of sheets was spontaneous. The latter activities strangely ceased when a Prefect was spotted.

Unicycles were everywhere in 1975 as numerous students mastered the difficult balancing required to ride successfully. While primping in front of the mirror was another continuous activity, boarders also found time to fish on the pier and seine in the shallows of the Bay.

New Conference Proves Tough

Entering a new conference for the 1974-75 football season was not all roses for the Rockachaws. At the end of the season the Rocks limped away from the Pascagoula River Conference football fields with a 4-5 record. The Rocks also lost to crosstown rival Bay High.

Victories were scored over Hancock North Central, Pearl River Central, St. Martin, and Vancleave. With twenty-five returning lettermen head coach Barry Jones and the entire school is waiting for next season.

Varsity Basketball Sports 21-6 Record

Coach Bob Cuccaro's 1975 varsity basketball team sported an impressive 21-6 record in its first year of play in the Pascagoula River Conference. The Rocks averaged 69.8 points to an opponent's 55 points per game. The major contribution to these statistics was senior guard, Robert Smith, who scored 610 points for the season. This total placed Robert second on the list of all time high scorers at Stanislaus. Smith also led the team in free throws, in total assists, and was chosen the Most Valuable Player in the Pascagoula River Conference.

Senior Will Marler who led the Rocks in total rebounds was chosen along with seniors Chuck Genin and Robert Smith to the All Conference team. Coach Bob Cuccaro was honored as Coach of the Year in the Pascagoula River Conference.

Rocks Capture Bay High Tourney

Highlighting the 1975 basketball season was a Rockachaw victory in the Bay High Invitational Tournament. In order to capture the championship the Rocks beat Hancock North Central, Pass High, and Stone County. Robert Smith, Chuck Genin, and Will Marler made the All-Tournament team.

In the Pascagoula River Conference Tournament the Rocks won their first game, then lost to Pass High, a team they had beaten twice. In the District 8-AA Tournament Stanislaus again won their first game, then lost to Gulfport East.

JV, Frosh Record Long Seasons

Junior Varsity roundballers hustled to a 5-11 record for the 1975 basketball season. Under the direction of Coach Joey Boh, all J.V. players received valuable game time experience. Standouts on the J.V. team included Charles Piazza, Mitch Whitaker, Donald Corr, and Philip Aldridge.

Although the 9th grade basketball team had a 2-9 record for the 1975 season, each player showed spirit and enthusiasm.

Kenneth Blakes received the Most Valuable Player Award and Cedric Hazeur was chosen to the All Pascagoula River Conference Junior High Team.

8th, 6th Grade Teams Have Winning Seasons

This year the 8th grade basketball team had a winning record, 7-5, for the first time in four years. Much of the credit for the success of Brother Anton's team goes to Kerry Corr. Kerry's outstanding play earned for him the Most Valuable Player award for the '75 basketball season.

As usual Brother Raymond's sixth grade team was a contender for the Gulf Coast Western Conference title. The sixth grade team had a 6-1 record, losing once to OLG after previously defeating them. Annunciation, St. Rose, St. Paul's, and Murphy also fell victim to the young Rockachaws.

Track Team Captures Pascagoula Conference

Highlight of the 1974-75 track season was the winning of the Pascagoula River Conference title by Coach Barry Jones' trackmen. They defeated Pass High by one point, as well as, finishing ahead of seven other conference teams. Undefeated in regular season competition, the Rocks placed sixth out of 20 teams in the West Bank Relays in Louisiana.

Outstanding tracksters included Jim Schott who set a new conference record in the 880 (time; 2:01.9) and a school record with a 4:36.7 mile run. Mike Russell, who with Schott was a co-winner of the Most Valuable Track Event trophy, helped set records as anchor leg in the 440 and 880 relays (times of 44.3 and 1:34.2 respectively). Art Scafide, David Treutel, and Martin Hoda were the other members of the record setting relay teams. Paul Brown, a high jumper and broad jumper, won the Most Valuable Field Event Trophy.

The Most Valuable Player Award went to Glenn Logan for his strong contributions in the Sprint Medley, the 440 yard dash and the Mile Relay. Paul Bertucci received the Most Outstanding Field Event Award with a 46'6" effort in the Shot Put. Mike Rooney and Dan Hayden were co-holders of the Most Outstanding Track Event Award. New Coach, New Look Mark Baseball Season

Baseball at Stanislaus had a new look in 1975. The team had a new program guided by a new coach, Mr. Fred Weems. To improve team offense, he purchased a new pitching machine. To improve team pride, Coach Weems outfitted the team with new uniforms.

These efforts produced results. The team averaged seven hits per ball game with four starters batting over 300. Their play produced a 9-11 record.

At the team banquet, catcher-pitcher, Mike Farve won the Most Valuable Player Award. Two players tied for the Batting Award with an average of .357; they were Mike Farve and centerfielder, Monnie Elchos. Shortstop, Mike Graeber won the Glove Award for his defensive play, while starting pitcher, Dan Ford received the Hustle Award. First baseman, Donald Corr was awarded the Most Improved Player.

Tennis Crew Has Undefeated Season

Five seniors and one junior made up the bulk of the power on the tennis team that went undefeated in 14 regular season matches. Tom Piland and Bayne Dickinson went undefeated in A-team Boys Doubles. Two other seniors played B-team doubles and went undefeated as well. Sam Hunter and Jim Amenta also provided the best competition for Bayne and Tom during the season. Bob Warner, teamed up with Susie Tabor, lost only 3 matches during regular season play and missed the Coast Invitational Championship in mixed doubles by losing the last point of a tie-breaker.

Mark Stipulkoski, the only junior on the A-team played in the number one slot and lost only five matches during regular season play. Sophomores, Frank Sagnibene and Ryan Cheramie alternated as the B-team singles players. Phil Schmidt played mixed-doubles on the B-team with Terri Murtagh. Two promising seventh graders, Jeff Lynch and Jordan Jones, played B-team doubles in three matches and went undefeated.

Under the capable guidance of Coach Bill Poole, the golf team played in three meets this past year. In the first meet which was held at Diamondhead Country Club seven teams competed and Stanislaus placed third. At Bayou View golf course in a five team meet the Rocks placed third again with a respectable 326 point total.

Traveling to the Pascagoula Invitational Tournament the team placed fourth behind Pascagoula, Meridian, and East Gulfport. Jim Dubuisson was Tournament medalist with an 18 hole total of 76. Other members of the team included Glenn Smith, Jacque Bell, Chip Ledet, Paul Guidry, Steve Schmitt, and Mark Elder.

UNDERCLASSMEN

Junior Class Makes Contributions

During the school year of 1974-1975, the Junior class made a substantial contribution to the enrichment of Stanislaus. The Juniors were active in all aspects of the school.

The Juniors were academically outstanding as they earned 25 "Alpha" and 45 "Beta" honor rolls in the first three quarters. They took the NMSQT/PSAT tests which helps evaluate one's mental ability and measures achievement. Many individuals also took ACT and SAT tests for the same purpose.

In athletics, the Juniors were also busy. Most of the football team was composed of Juniors. There were Junior members on the basketball and baseball teams. Juniors were active in all intramurals. Junior class 215 won the intramural championship for basketball.

Sophomores Show Fighting Spirit

This year's sophomores show that ''old fighting spirit'' by participating in many athletic and academic fields.

Their spirit was shown in the junior division intramurals. 10-211 gained first place in the football intramurals while 10-227 won the basketball intramurals.

In the academic field eight sophomores were inducted into the Brother Peter Basso Chapter of the National Honor Society. Also, eight students from the sophomore class achieved the President's Honor Roll.

139 Freshmen Is Largest Class Ever

One hundred thirty-nine freshmen made up the largest ninth grade class ever. Ninth graders tried to participate in everything they could. 9-222 during the Mission Drive led the entire high school with five dollars and five cents per person. They got this mostly by raffling off a digital clock radio. 9-224 and 9-222 sponsored candidates who were among the three finalists for the Miss Popularity contest in May.

Generosity Marks Eighth Grade Class

1975's eighth grade class proved to be outstanding in its generosity in time and effort for extracurricular activities. The class had a winning football and basketball team. The class also participated heavily in track. Nineteen students were in the band and they participated in contests across the state. 8-226 set a new record of $15.28 per student in the Mission Drive. They also went on a field trip to the planetarium at Dominican College in New Orleans.

7th Graders Live Life to Fullest

Seventh graders found innumerable ways to enjoy life in 1975. From the moment the 7th graders rolled out of bed in the morning, to the time they climbed back in the evening, they filled their waking hours with energetic activity.

Whether they were helping at the Fair, playing games of chase around the infirmary, or serving Mass in the chapel, seventh graders lived every minute of the year to its fullest. Accompanying the traditional 7th grader backfield intramurals, camping activities, rec-hall pastimes and expeditions with Bro. Roy were the new fads of '75. Seventh graders were in the forefront of unicycle and skateboard riding around campus.

Sixth Graders Comprise Smallest, Loudest Group

Being labeled as the smallest and youngest grade level has not stifled the energy and enthusiasm of the sixth grade. Brother Leon's sixth graders never seem to slow down despite hours of exercise on the back field, skateboarding, class work, etc. When asked about their school work the most popular assignments were the study of ancient fossils, statues from the Maya civilization, the stream table, distilling muddy water, the exhaust pump, and the static electricity machine.

Brother Raymond conducts their P.E. classes and also coaches the 6th grade basketball and baseball teams that compete in the Western Gulf Coast Conference.

A year of challenge and growth comes to a close. Our experiences have helped us change and mature. We have all grown in some way through the year for "to grow is to change, and to have changed often is to have grown much."
